THE LAUREATE 1959

FOREWORD

As we, the youth of today, acquire the heavy load of the future, we must build upon the lighter and happier aspects of our nature, for they provide the nourishment which enables us to endure the duties and responsibilities required of us by life.

Our spirit, here at H. H. S., contains this gaiety and happy-go-lucky air intermingled with the seriousness of purpose for which we have come together. In the classroom, our spirit answers the serious demand of life—to more fully develop the capacities with which we have been endowed by our Creator—while in the halls and on the campus, our mood is more frivolous and carefree.

This life-sustaining spirit is ever-constant in our school, for the spirit is ours and ours is the spirit of H. H. S.

A challenge to those who will enter,
A part of us who are passing by.*

RED AND WHITE

*Hail to the Red and White!
Hail to our Alma Mater;
Ready we stand, to her just demand
To keep our future bright.*

*Sing Carolina's praise!
Hendersonville always!
Loyal and eager stand we now,
Pledged to the Red and White.*

If I were to tell you the story of Napoleon, I would take it from the lips of the Frenchmen. Were I to tell you the story of George Washington, the brightest consummate flower of our earlier civilization, I would take it from the early pages of American history; but to tell you the story of this great teacher, I would take it from the hearts of the boys and girls of Hendersonville. Maybe fifty years hence, when truth gets a hearing, the muse of time will dip her pen in the clear blue sky and write above them all the name of Miss Remine as one of the greatest teachers of Hendersonville High.

LEADERSHIP

HUGH D. RANDALL,
Superintendent.

I wanted to be a doctor; I wanted to be a farmer;
I wanted to be a builder; I wanted to be a writer.
I wanted to do them all, and a still small voice said,
"I can tell you how to do every one of them." I said, "How?" The answer came, "Just be a teacher.
Some boy will heal the sick; someone else will grow
the food; another will build—and you can help them all." How true this has proven to be.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

A number of people think of school spirit as being associated solely with athletic events conducted by a school. To me, school spirit is more far-reaching; it takes into account all aspects of school life within the school, in the neighborhood or community, and relationships involving other schools.

Loyalty and service to the school are ways of showing school spirit. It is much the same as being a part of a team and being willing to serve extra time and do extra things in order to be proud of your membership and proud that you belong. School spirit is at its best when everyone is busy and contributing constructively to the life of the school.

School spirit means standing up for the things that are right and fair and good in order to build or maintain a better school—a school whose members act as a team for the good of all concerned.

"Farewell, friends! Yet not farewell"

—Sir Edwin Arnold

During the four short years we have spent at Hendersonville High School, we have had our joys—entering high school, joining clubs, school parties, honor rolls, winning ball games, Junior-Senior, move-up assembly, sitting on the Senior Steps, class rings—and our sorrows—homework, book reports, term papers, classmates who have left us, graduation.

Our disillusionments have been trivial in comparison with the many high ideals we have encountered in high school, ideals which will remain with us through life.

As we go out into the world to our various ways of life, we take with us more fond memories than can be imagined.

The unity of our class can be contributed to the common spirit of loyalty which each of us has felt so strongly to H. H. S.

We have made it—Mr. Bearcat has taken us by the hand and led us through.

The Junior Class comes to the end of the year and stops a little out of breath.

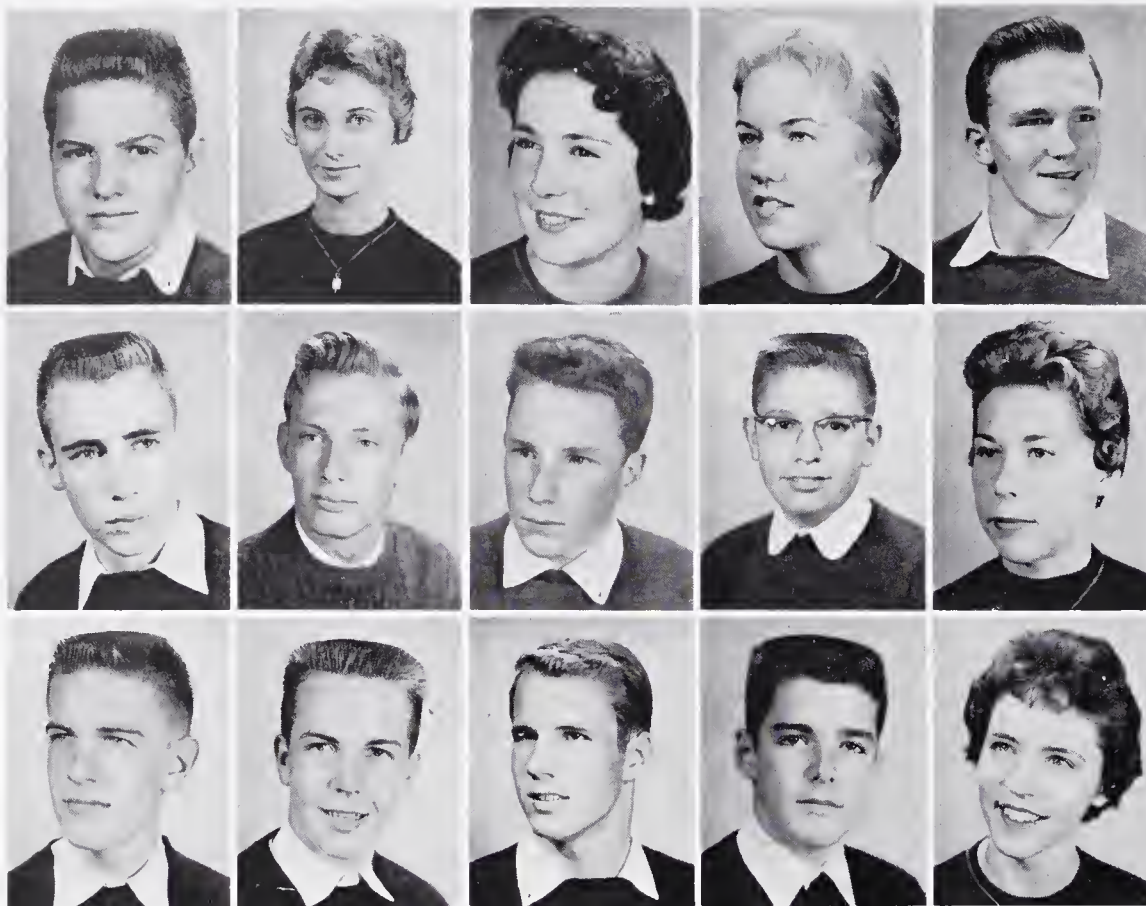

Their willingness to work, along with their undying enthusiasm, ensured the success of their numerous projects.

Classes were exciting as well as educational for this group. Proving that one angle equals another and that two lines were parallel were only two of the problems that faced them in geometry. By studying the Constitution in American History they prepared themselves to become better citizens and future leaders of America. Term papers and vocabulary cards kept the Juniors in a constant dilemma.

Finally came that long-awaited thrill—decorating for the Junior-Senior. Everyone enjoyed the long weeks of preparation, the last-minute rush, and, finally, that "Big Night."

The Juniors don't spend much time reminiscing because there is an even greater adventure ahead—becoming the seniors of 1960!

In the spring members of the club and their dates and first-year Latin students maintaining the highest Latin lives again as the Latin students meet every other Friday with their sponsor, Mrs. Elizabeth Price. In the informative programs, fun, and fellowship of the meetings, Mr. Bearcat is personified as a "Live" Roman.

Amigos, in our meetings every third Tuesday, we increase our knowledge of Spanish-speaking countries. Many Latin American songs and dances are learned.

Membership in our Spanish Club is limited to Spanish II students who are interest in joining. After mid-

HENDERSONVILLE

Since its formation the Hendersonville High School Band has been a source of pleasure to students and faculty of H. H. S. and residents of Henderson County.

Throughout the year the band has presented concerts at various schools, has performed at ball games, and has entertained at other campus activities.

Long and tedious hours were required to attain the rating of "superior" at the Western District Contest in March.

This year was highlighted by their participation in the State Band Contest in Greensboro, N. C.

The spirit of Mr. Bearcat has come alive in a musical way for the audiences of the Hendersonville High School Band.

MUSIC APPRECIATION CLUB

The youngest club at H. H. S. is the Music Appreciation Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. William Cumming. It was organized in an attempt to promote an interest in music on our campus and to provide an opportunity for fellowship of those students with similar interests. The members have acquired a knowledge and appreciation of some of the world's greatest composers and their music. Every other Wednesday afternoon melodious tones permeate the halls of H. H. S. to provide cheer and inspiration for all who pause to listen.

"Dedicated to the Sanctity of Child Personality"

To publish a book that would be more than just another yearbook recording school spirit in pictures, to catch the true spirit of life at Hendersonville high, and to reflect that school spirit throughout the pages of the LAUREATE has been the goal of the entire staff.

Work actually began during the month of September with the launching of the magazine drive, followed by an intensive advertising campaign. This was followed by the planning of the layout, then picture taking and retaking began and continued almost until the final deadline, February 15. Write-ups, tear-ups, and write-ups again.

It was all as simple as that, yet it involved endless hours of work, work that will be rewarding if the yearbook is a living link between you and your high school life, and if it recaptures ever anew the memories of the life and spirit that to you were Hendersonville High.

1958 BEARCAT SQUAD

Coach Harold Cline had his work cut out for him this year with a loosely attacking team that looked worse on defense. But it seemed, after the first encounter with Brevard, that Cline hit the winning column with a high-spirited team. With every following game the 'Cats improved. Cline's coaching deserves applause from every gridiron fan with the 5-4-1 record for the year.

The 'Cats traveled to Brevard next and lost a real heart-breaker. The game ended with Brevard in the lead 13-7. Canton downed Hendersonville for their last defeat of the season. In the next game the Bearcats tripped Bethel 24-0.

Get your finger out of my eye.

After opening the 1958 season with defeats from Enka and Brevard, the Bearcats topped Owen 13-7. Next to suffer under Kinney's troupe was Erwin 26-0. A tall Mountaineer team invaded H. H. S. and barely managed a 13-13 tie.

Keep those legs turning, Harbo.

The Reynolds Rockets were blasted by a 32-14 defeat at the hands of Hendersonville. The 'Cats ended their gridiron season by walloping North Buncombe 54-13. This concluded H. H. S.'s 1958 football wars in grand style after a rather slow start. Their season record was 5-4-1.

Homecoming

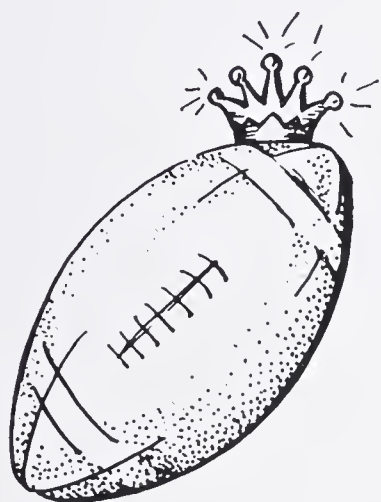

Participating students thoroughly enjoyed the frills and follies of the annual Homecoming Parade held on the afternoon of the big night. Even those who didn't quite make Main Street got a big thrill out of decorations and thought the first block was just great.

This year's race for Queen was a break from tradition with all four candidates for top honors coming from the senior class. Barbara Fein, Patsy Henderson, Linda Laughter, and Elloise Rollins were the centers-of attraction throughout the week. The leading candidates from the under classes comprised the Queen's court.

October 24, 1958

As always, crowds packed into the concession stands at half-time. Hardworking students with grease-laden clothes and an undying spirit joyfully turned out popcorn, candy, and coca-colas for the hungry spectators. Proceeds from the home game concessions went to the support of The Red and White and the Laureate.

The crowning of Miss Patsy Henderson as Homecoming Queen by Captain Tom Shepherd highlighted the half-time ceremonies of the Reynolds-Hendersonville game on October 24, 1958.

A large crowd of students, alumni, friends, and visitors was on hand for this annual occasion. Indeed, this year's event was a true homecoming.

Virtue Of Character Warrants Recognition

Being a high school coach is one of the hardest jobs in the world. A coach is always in the public eye, and his conduct must be above reproach. He must get the most out of his team. If he does not win, he will be condemned by the people of the town and sometimes by the students. When he does win, the credit must be given to the team.

Harold Cline, H. H. S. athletic director and football coach, has had a tremendous load to carry for the last two years. He has had to develop graduation-depleted teams into contenders both years. While other schools have two, three, and even four football coaches, Coach Cline has had the task of coaching the Bearcat varsity without any assistance whatsoever.

His sideline conduct has been excellent. Although he must criticize his team in private for their mistakes, he does not adversely criticize a player in front of townspeople or parents. His language, too, has been exemplary. When a player has been hurt, Coach Cline has always removed him from the game, realizing that a boy's health is more important than any victory.

Away from the sports field Coach Cline is always willing to help other school organizations.

Coach Cline deserves a tremendous amount of credit and a large vote of confidence for his fine work.

—HHS—

MY LIFE CYCLE . . .

. . . is that of four years, yet once I am born I never die. I am invisible, however my spirit and presence are always felt. For I live in the hearts of each of you, and I shall live as long as there is a boy or girl with hope and enthusiasm walking with me.

I am living in the clanging of the class bell . . . in the silence that pervades homerooms each morning as devotionals are given. I live in the football stadium and on the basketball court cheering our teams on to victory. I am living in the halls as you change classes . . . in the lunchroom as you gather with your friends. I live in assemblies cheering with each class as it proudly gives its class cheer.

I have a feeling of loyalty for my country each time I pledge allegiance to the flag. I have a feeling of loyalty for our school each time we sing "Hail to the Red and White." Most of all I have a feeling of love for each one of you who are a part of our great school.

I have a taste of coffee at Brock's; of turkey in the lunchroom before Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays; of donuts, cokes, and Pepto-Bismol.

I am seen in crew neck sweaters, in stacks of books, in the RED AND WHITE, in the office writing tardy slips for you, and in all of your extra-curricular activities.

I am heard in the classrooms, behind closed doors, at your school socials, in yells of joy, in the locker room after the well-played games; at assemblies when I raise my voice—loudly, if not beautifully.

I radiate in smiling faces. I grow strong through unselfish work for me and H. H. S. and love given freely to me. You are I . . . but unlike you I am many places at once, for I go with each of you who will let me.

I am Mr. Bearcat, the Spirit of Hendersonville High School.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The Spirit of Our Modern Business World is one we on the annual staff were very happy to encounter. With a great deal of generosity, our advertisers invested in the 1959 Laureate. Their association with us and ours with them was both happy and profitable. Our best wishes and thanks are with all the businessmen who assisted us so willingly.
